

ARCHITECTURAL DIGEST

9 Luxury Escapes for Animal Lovers

If you love traveling to exotic locales, staying in luxurious hotels, and lounging with animals—this list is a must

By Stephanie Strasnick
JULY 20, 2017 10:00 AM

For many pet owners, finding a desirable hotel or resort that welcomes animals can be a challenge. Generally, luxurious hotels are not always the best when it comes to being pet friendly. And those establishments that do allow your feline-friend through their doors tend not to be the most stylish of hotels. Yet, some places embrace both elements of luxury and animal-friendliness. In fact, several take the term ‘animal friendly’ to new extremes. From a Wicklow estate with on-site falconry lessons to a boutique hotel in Nairobi known for its friendly resident giraffes, AD survey's some of the world's top hotels for animal lovers.

Gleneagles

The countryside estate of Gleneagles in Scotland offers a number of animal-centric activities, including falconry, horseback riding, and gundog lessons with the property's 12 fully trained Labradors.