

TOP CAMPING SPOTS FOR FALL

Sunset

THE BEST

WINES OF THE YEAR

YOUR NEXT GREAT ESCAPE:
BAJA'S WINE
VALLEY

HALLOWEEN
PARTY
SNACKS

MENDOCINO
FARM
GETAWAYS

PERFECT
COCKTAIL
& CHEESE
PAIRINGS

+

NEW GREENS
FOR RAISED BEDS

BRUMA WINERY,
VALLE DE
GUADALUPE, MEXICO

OCTOBER 2017

$5.99US $7.50CAN

10>

VISIT US AT SUNSET.COM

FIVE WAYS TO CAMP RIGHT NOW

GLAMP

LEAVE THE DETAILS TO SOMEONE ELSE

NORTH BANK CAMP

For family excursions without the sleepless nights, check into The Resort at Paws Up. Earlier this year, the Greenough, Montana, retreat debuted its secluded North Bank Camp, a small collection of two- and three-bedroom tents for adventurous groups. On a bluff over the Blackfoot River, North Bank has all the swanky amenities—underfloor heating, furnished decks, camp chefs, private butlers—that Paws Up is known for, plus a brand-new dining pavilion and firepit, where s'mores are browned to perfection. Bonus: Some of their cabins are now getting in on the glamping game too, with 500-square-foot tents to lure kids and kids-at-heart to camp out on the grass. From $2,783/night, including meals, for a two-bedroom for four people; pawsup.com.

SOCKEYE SALMON

SLEEP IN TECHNICOLOR

Don't be a drive-by peeper—immerse yourself in the falling leaves.

STAY
	CRESTED BUTTE CO	SEDONA AZ	LEAVENWORTH WA
SITE	Lost Lake Campground is a gorgeous gateway to Kebler Pass, one of the country's largest aspen groves, near Beckwith Mountains. www.fs.usda.gov.	Sites 10 through 12 at Manzanita Campground sit closest to the water, which lights up with yellow and red oak leaves. www.fs.usda.gov.	On the border of the Enchantment Area Wilderness, Bridge Creek Campground's falling leaves flash from mustard to maroon. www.fs.usda.gov.
SHELTER	Pick up the "Biggie" Native Campervan in Denver to stay warm and insulated with memory foam and fleece bedding. From $185; nativecampervans.com.	String up your Therm-a-Rest Slacker Hammock House between ash and box elders to commune with songbirds. $200; therma-rest.com.	This intimate forest, 1,900 feet above sea level, is perfect for a classic tent like The North Face Homestead Roomy 2. $230; thenorthface.com.
HIKE	The 3-mile Three Lakes Loop starts at the campground and passes countless aspens painting the hills yellow. travelcrestedbutte.com.	The 6-mile out-and-back West Fork Trail is a portal between striped canyon walls and stream crossings. www.fs.usda.gov.	Make time for the 8-mile round-trip to Colchuck Lake, a turquoise glacial gem set against neon larches and craggy peaks. www.fs.usda.gov.

SEE

LIVE-STREAM AN EPIC MIGRATION

In B.C., even the water changes color in early October. At Roderick

Haig-Brown Provincial Park outside Kamloops, the Adams River gushes red during one of the biggest sockeye salmon runs in North America. About 85 miles north, at Bailey's Chute in Wells Gray Provincial Park, chinook leap for their lives. To watch the action, overnight at nearby Dutch Lake Resort & RV Park campground, which is stocked with rainbow trout and kokanee—meaning you don't have to be a grizzly to catch salmonid. bcparks.ca; dutchlake.com.