

Quirky hotel rooms inspired by cartoons and comics

Ramsey Qubein, Special to USA TODAY Published 8:01 a.m. ET Feb. 16, 2018

Whether you're taking your kids on vacation or recalling your own favorite cartoons as a kid, you're sure to get a little giddy after a stay in these character-themed hotel experiences. From Barbie to Tintin, hotels around the world are catching on to the nostalgia of our cartoons, toys and games and finding new ways to appeal to the next generation of traveler. Raise a glass at afternoon tea with Paddington Bear, rest your head in a Hello Kitty suite, and find more character-themed hotel options in the slideshow above.

Cartoon character-themed hotel experiences

The Wyndham Grand Clearwater Beach in Clearwater Beach, Fla., has teamed up with nonprofit rehabilitation center Clearwater Marine Aquarium to feature the stars of the "Dolphin Tale" movies, Winter and Hope. The guest rooms have special Winter and Hope decor, a bunk bed for kids and a king bed for parents. Wyndham Grand